BREAKING ALL RECORDS

Spirited Bidding For Lead and Zinc Ores—David Clark Uncovers a Body of Carbonate—Dividends From Fluor Spar—Paducah Happenings.

LAST WEEK'S SPLENDID RECORD!

The past week has been rather eventful in a mining way.

The year's work was rounded up by the stockholders of the Kentucky Fluor Spar company, and a generous dividend declared and paid. The annual meeting was held on Wednesday, and all of the capital stock was represented. There were present Mr. Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, representing about one half of the stock, and Messrs. Maxwell, Blue, Nunn and Watkins, of Marion, owning the balance. Some transfers of the stock were made a few weeks ago, the price paid being $135 per share, or $35 premium.

It was anticipated that a 35 per cent. dividend would be declared on this, the first year of the existence of the consolidated companies. It was stated that but ten per cent. was declared, owing to the addition during the year of a very complete separating plant at the company's works in Marion, which probably cost very nearly the difference. The company's many mines are well provided with machinery and everything points to a still greater success for the ensuing year.

On the same day the first annual meeting of the Columbia Mining company was held in this city. Messrs. Porter, Johnson and Hudson, of Paris, Tenn.; Mr. Overby, of Paducah; Mr. Harry Watkins, of Marion, and one or two Northern holders of stock participated in the meeting. A visit was made to the Columbia mine, where the large separating plant is being constructed. The probabilities are that this mill will be in active operation within the next 40 days.

The highest price reported paid for zinc ore in the Joplin district last week was $40 per ton, and the assay basis ranged from $35 to $37.50 per ton, according to the quality of the ore. A year ago the highest price was $35 per ton. Some little competition was ushered into the lead market, and a few lots sold at a special price; lead sold generally at $54 per ton, but there were a few instances where a higher price was paid, another buyer having dropped into the market who took several lots at an advance. A year ago the price of lead was $45 a ton.

The total zinc sales, 4491 tons was perhaps about the equal of the output, though some of the buyers are of the opinion that the reserve is a little higher than a week ago. If there is any unsold ore in the district it is hard to find.

The district value of the output during the past week was $103,291.

The Henderson Syndicate, Messrs. David Clark, Charles Damm and Louis Baldauf, have uncovered a splendid quality of carbonate of zinc on their Farmer property adjoining Blue & Nunn's "Old Jim" mine.

For nearly two years Mr. Clark has given more or less of his time to prospecting this land, as well as considerable of a tract of land known as the Thomas farm, both of which are owned by these gentlemen.

Last fall two trenches were cut, and a space left untouched a few feet in extent between them. Over this one of the members of the United States Geological Survey made the statement that there was no use prospecting for carbonate there. At a depth of about fifteen inches underneath where he then stood the vein of carbonate was uncovered on last Thursday. The ore is of a fine quality and there seems to be a large body of it.

The persistently progressive, pushing city of Paducah is not quite 42 miles from Marion. Its growth is simply wonderful. The older inhabitants can not yet reconcile themselves to the fact of meeting so many strange faces every time they happen to be on the street. The commercial club of Paducah, composed as it is of the younger business men of the city, are always ready to extend a helping hand to any enterprise that promises results. If one has a good thing they will surely push it along. Already some 51 factories of various kinds are giving employment to as many hundred operatives. Indeed the Paducahians, one and all, are disposed in every way to advance the interests of their city.

The combination of the Porter-Hudson Tobacco company, of Paris, Tenn., with the Smith-Scott works at Paducah is already showing the work of a strong man at its head. Mr. Porter, who was for several years in the fluor spar business in Marion, is the general manager of the combined company. The other day in Paducah he was loaning out the surplus funds of the company and the amount would have purchased a big slice of the city 25 years ago.

Other Marion people who are interested in Paducah have also had a mighty level head looking after their interests. Mr. P. S. Maxwell has recently leased to a syndicate of Paducah capitalists a tract of ground adjoining the Palmer House on Broadway, the lease being for 60 years, with an annual rental that would make any one except Marion mining men rich.

The genial cashier of the Globe Trust Co., Mr. H. H. Loving, a long time resident of Marion, is always called upon by our people when in Paducah, and from the crowd in his bank pretty nearly everybody else calls there some time during the day.

The exhibit of ores from Marion at the Palmer House by the Reed Mining company, created a great deal of interest and quite a number of lots, with the 1,000 shares of stock added, were sold. Mr. Roberts was assisted part of the time by that silver-tongued, persuasive gentleman of Marion, Mr. James Henry, and both did their best to give the citizens some idea of the "Mining Wonderland" here in Crittenden county.

All in all, social, financial, and every other way, we raise our hats to the people of Paducah.

There seems to be a deadlock between the Kewanee Fire Clay people and the teamsters in and around the Stevens farm, where this fire clay is being mined. The difference of 25 cents per ton has put a stop to the enterprise, for the present, at least. The company offer $1.75 per ton to Marion; $2.00 per ton is demanded by the men owning the teams.

It looks some what like a short-sighted policy on the part of the latter, inasmuch as the development of this section of the county not only enhances the value of all lands in the vicinity, but enables a contemplated railroad an opportunity to base the tonnage of freight it would reasonably secure from that point.

It is said that one hundred teams could be actively employed in the transportation of this clay for shipment to the works at Kewanee, from the Illinois Central at Marion. The farmers and land owners are most decidedly interested in having such an enterprise in their midst, and it would seem advisable that both sides should, if necessary, yield somewhat on this very slight difference.

Mr. Allie Moore, one of our legal gentlemen, was never accused of farming for either exercise or profit, but he has a little son who, during the past season, has attended to a plot of ground possibly one-sixteenth of an acre, covered with strawberry plants. This young gentleman has sold from this ground 247 gallons of strawberries at 40 cents per gallon and the field looks as though it would yield as many more; and this, too, in addition to the home consumption; and any one that knows Allie Moore's capacity for strawberries can figure out what the yield must have been. There is no question but that fruit culture of nearly all kinds in this section would return a splendid profit. Our sandy knolls, planted with a good variety of either apple or pear trees would return more money than the land owner would know what to do with. A good winter apple is always salable in any market at a good round price. Form a fruit culture club get the best information possible and raise fruit.

McConnelly & Keen, who are prospecting within ten miles of Elizabethtown, Ill., have uncovered what is stated to be the largest and strongest body of lead ore yet found across the river. The vein is nearly solid galena, six feet in width. Fred Clement, of Marion, who had just arrived from the shaft, telephones that the entire vein will average 60 per cent. of lead. The Marion Mineral company has a piece of property adjoining this land. It is about two miles from this company's great fluor spar property on the Lee farm.

Major Clement resumed work on the Clement mine last Monday.

It is somewhat strange that the miners in this section hesitate to contract by the foot for sinking shafts. Here is a gentleman who would much prefer to make a contract for a certain depth on a splendid mineral showing, and he does it to avoid the trouble and annoyance of personal superintendence. Have not we a progressive man in camp who will take up such contracts and complete them.

The Seacoast Mineral company is having the usual rugged road to travel upon that most innovations do have. Possibly the placing in Paducah of a very costly method of separating our ores was a mistake, inasmuch as their value in the rough for such of our ores as require concentration is not large. Deducting freight from the mine to the plant at Paducah—a very good profit in itself—and add to that the cost of handling and re-shipping, the balance left is too small to afford the miner but little, if anything.

Of course the cure for this sort of thing is to place such plants in the immediate vicinity of the mines where the ore will meet the machinery for its dressing as soon as mined, and no unnecessary expense will be incurred.

It is expected that the Eastern end of the string will succeed in placing the company in bankruptcy, after which a reorganization will take place and probably the machinery will be taken to the ore fields of Western Kentucky where it naturally belongs.

Messrs. Black, Barnard, Little and McClelland, all of whom are interested in the Southern Illinois mining district, were in Paducah last week. The opinion of these gentlemen as to that field was very flattering; deep shafts are being sunk in many places, old abandoned properties are being resurrected and placed in productive shape and a general good feeling of prosperity but a little ahead of them was manifest in their conversation. Mr. Merritt, of Salem, was also in that city on Monday, en route for St. Louis, where he will remain a few days.

The Babb mining shaft, being one of the first openings made by Messrs. Blue & Nunn in the district, has a very large vein of disseminated zinc ore, something similar to the Joplin ground.

It is situated very near the Illinois Central railroad, and with the ordinary Joplin jigs for cleaning the Jack from the gangue it seems to offer very strong possibilities for mining and shipping ore. The Press understands that a lease can be made of this ground, and that but little capital would be required to make a handsome property out of it.

The lease on the property in Mexico, known as the Myers farm, some eight miles south of Marion, and on which extensive bodies of barites and fluor spar have been located, was sold last week to the Commercial Mining company, of Hopkinsville, for $2,000 in cash and $3,000 in the stock of the company. The property was originally leased from Mr. Myers by Jas. Henry and Lawrence Cruce, who afterward sold their interests to Kevil, Jameson & Fowler, of Marion.

The Rosi Claire vein, passing through the Babb farm, near Carville, has been tapped by the Ohio Valley Mining company of Marion, and the showing in lead and zinc ores, as well as fluor spar, is unmistakably strong. Considerable excitement exists in that locality over this fact and extensive preparations are being made by the company to develop the property to its fullest extent.

Mr. W. A. Grider, of Bowling Green, is making a collection of the various ores of this district for the St. Louis Exposition on behalf of the mineral exhibit committee of Kentucky.

SPAR GRINDERS

Louisville, Kentucky.

We offer the unexcelled facilities of our extensive milling plant at Louisville, Ky. to those desiring to have their Spar ground for the market. Are prepared to grind to any degree of fineness desired. Shipments received, ground and forwarded promptly. Any business entrusted to our care will be held strictly confidential. Prices on application.

The meeting of the Ohio and Tennessee rivers somehow seems typical of the business talents of the Paducah people; they combine northern shrewdness with southern confidence, and as a result their city will, in the not distant future, have to be considered in most of the larger business affairs of the country.

Mr. Robert Drescher returned to Marion from his few weeks vacation in great form. He will shortly take up the study of analytical chemistry as applied to our ores, here for the purpose of checking the mill work at the Columbia mine. This mill will be in operation in about 40 days, and a very large output of both lead and zinc will be made.

Mr. J. A. Pierce, of Salem, has uncovered within a few miles of that city a body of carbonate 16 feet in width, of a first-class quality. On the same land and parallel to this vein of carbonate, is a vein of lead ore and white fluor spar eight feet in width. The samples shown in Marion by Mr. Pierce are number one in every respect.

President J. L. Frankel, of the Tradewater Coal company, of Sturgis, announces many improvements and a steady run of work for the new colliery, which is one of the most prosperous in the state. About one hundred new houses will also be built to accommodate the increased force of miners.

The shaft of the Wilson Mining company, near Crittenden Springs is now down 60 feet. It was not expected to reach the strike of the ore body at less than 75 feet, but from the assays constantly being made as depth is gained, the showing of zinc values indicates an ore body not far from the present depth.

The Crittenden Springs Hotel register showed a very large arrival list at that famous summer resort, Sunday last. Fully twenty ladies and gentlemen from various sections of the United States, reached the hotel that morning. Major Ira Pierce did the honors in his usual affable style.

Mr. George P. Roberts, for several years in the Washington and British Columbia mining country, reached here from Seattle last week. He will, after visiting the various mines, and familiarizing himself with the makeup of the district, commence work on the Reed Mining company's land.

Dr. Curran Pope and brother, of Louisville, arrived on Saturday.

Day before yesterday mining work was resumed on the Senator mine, near Princeton. Senator Deboe is enthusiastic over the future of this property, and certainly the zinc and lead ore so far taken out warrants that sort of feeling in a marked degree.

Mining captain Persons, of the Mineral Point Zinc Co., is retimbering the Holly shaft preparatory to sinking from its 70 foot depth. The boiler, hoist, etc., are all in place and work will be vigorously pushed.

A letter from Mr. Steinmiz, dated at Cody, Nebraska, was received on Saturday. He is en route to the Atlin Lake district of Alaska, where there's more room to play base ball than in our court house yard here.

Out at the Wesley Eaton fluor spar property, owned by some mining company or other, we have forgotten its name, an indescribable air of sadness prevails—a dull, innocuous desuetude sort of an atmosphere. Why is this thus?

The weather in Marion was balmy, warm, and much like the June days of other years until the arrival of a gentleman from Mineral Point. We have been wearing overcoats ever since.

A slab of spelter—metallic zinc—produced from Marion "Jack", by the Winona, Minn. smelter, was received by Blue & Nunn Monday. The quality is A1.

Extensive gold and silver deposits are reported in Mississippi.

AN AWFUL DISASTER.

A cloudburst and flood at Heppner, Ore., swept away a great portion of the town, and drowned nearly half the population, about 500 persons, in the ruins. Besides these, 100 to 200 persons are injured, while the property loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

MONARCHS ASSASSINATED!

King Alexander and Queen Draga of Serbia Murdered By Revolutionists Friday Morning.

DEED APPARENTLY APPROVED BY PEOPLE.

A military conspiracy has resulted in the blotting out of the Obrenovitch dynasty of the kingdom of Serbia, and the proclaiming of a new ruler. King Alexander and Queen Draga, the Queen's two brothers, Premier Markovitch, the Minister of War, two royal aids, and two other officers are known to have been killed. The King and Queen were assassinated 2 o'clock in the morning in the royal palace, which the soldiers forcibly entered. A new Cabinet was formed after the assassination and Prince Peter Karageorgevitch, pretender to the throne, was proclaimed King. It is stated that the new ministers of Justice and Finance planned the revolution. Advice in relating the details of the crime, say that the King and Queen were chased to the palace roof and there murdered by the soldiers. The Queen's two brothers were shot at their homes. Prince Karageorgevitch, the new King, is 53 years old and has three children. He has lived at Geneva since 1891, and though he declares his innocence of any knowledge of the assassinations, the revolution is believed to have been hatched in the Swiss city.

The revolution was executed without any opposition on the part of the people of Belgrade, and the capital and the country remain tranquil.

The assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, with the Prince Nicodam, heir to the Serbian throne, thus bringing to a close the Obrenovitch dynasty, was the culmination of a long period of misrule by the half crazed royal family. The scandalous conduct of Queen Draga, which has been the talk of European courts for years, with the weakness of the King, affords the most forcible illustration on record of Prof. Lombroso's somewhat sensational theory that all the royal families of Europe are by heritage moral degenerates. The extravagant conduct of the Serbian ruling family is given in the most natural and almost logical solution of the outbreak which finally resulted in their murder in the palace, together with others identified with the administration of the government.

The newspapers are almost unanimous in approving the revolution. Some compassion is felt for the unfortunate King, but the people generally admit that no other solution to an intolerant situation was possible.

Prince Karageorgevitch declares himself innocent of any knowledge of the tragedy at Belgrade. He said that through his grandfather he undoubtedly had the best right to the Serbian throne and intended taking it if possible for the sake of his son, but he expected to meet with great difficulties and hoped for assistance from Austria.

Leading Serbian statesmen were long of the opinion that a general uprising was imminent the King's arbitrary rule, his persecution of all persons opposed to Draga and her family, financial depression and the instability of things generally tending that way.

It was openly charged that the King and Queen were jointly responsible for the attempt on the life of the late King Milan; that, indeed, they hired the murderers sent to assassinate their father and father-in-law. The plotters could never have gone to work as they did if it had not been for the protection of the King and his concurrence, and that those caught red-handed were afterward suffocated in prison or tortured to death seems to indicate that Alexander feared their testimony. Among the conspirators foully murdered in their cells were Zivko Angelovitch, Governor of Shabatz, and another high official named Knezvitch, both of whom used to belong to Alexander's circle of intimates.

Almost without a murmur the Serbian people have accepted the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga and the proclamation of a new ruler. Later reports about the bloody hour in the palace vary in detail from the first description of the assassination. There were ninety active participants in the tragedy. They fought their way to the inner chambers, when the palace lights went out and candles were resorted to by the soldiers. The King and Queen fled to a secret chamber, which was located by one of the Queen's servants. The royal pair were slain without parley.

MUST PAY A LICENSE

Hunting in Illinois is now a licensed sport. All Kentucky sport men, who desire to indulge in the pleasure of the chase in the woods and fields across the Ohio, must first equip themselves with a license. According to the game law passed by the last legislature, of Illinois, residents of the state can get this license for $1 while the fee for non-residents is $15.

For the $1 fee each hunter living in Illinois gets a neat little blue linen backed document which he can tuck into his pocket. On the face of the license his name, occupation and description of person appears. The law requires that the holder produce it at the request of any game warden in the state. Punishment, either by fine or imprisonment or both, is provided for violation of the license provisions.

The only exemption made by the law is in the case of a land owner who hunts on his own land. A farmer may hunt on his own farm, but if he wants to cross over to his neighbor's he must equip himself with a license or run the risk of being caught and heavily fined.

County clerks will issue the license.

TO PAY MONEY BACK.

The two gold brick swindlers, who caught "Uncle" Ben Johnson of Elkton, Ky., and pocketed $5,000 of his money, were admitted to bail at Vincennes, Ind., Friday evening, they being under rest at that place for playing the game on a Hoosier farmer. A Vincennes telegram says:

"The prisoners had been identified in jail here by Uncle Ben Johnson, of Elkton, Ky., as the men who gold bricked him of $5,000 in April. When asked for a statement by the court, the Kentucky attorneys said they would not press the case, as arrangements to repay Johnson had been perfected."

PLAN BIG SHOW.

This Year's State Fair to Eclipse All Previous Efforts.

PREMIUMS AGGREGATING $20,000 WILL BE AWARDED.

Although four months away, plans are already well matured for Kentucky's Second Annual State Fair, to be held this year on the splendid Fair Grounds at Owensboro, Sept. 21 to 26.

A contract has already been signed for Kurkamp's Band of 40 pieces to play during the entire week. Popular concerts are to be given each day, the band being of such a character as to make these concerts among the most attractive features of the week. During the next week or two the management of the Fair will be enabled to announce the series of high class and novel amusements which will be furnished while the Fair lasts. The attractions will be different from those ever before offered the patrons of a big State Fair in this portion of the United States.

So important is the fair considered by the railroads that they have already announced a half fare rate from all points in Kentucky, as well as special rates from Tennessee and Southern Indiana.

The fair is expected to be bigger and better this year than ever before. Premiums aggregating $20,000 will be awarded, and in some cases the premium will be larger than those offered by any State Fair in the country. This is notably so in the Jersey rings, where $800 will be awarded the winners. The Association has also set aside $2,000 for the short-horn classes, more money than is awarded at any other State Fair, except Minnesota. Of this purse, $500 will be awarded to Kentucky cattle alone.

The handsome catalogues that have just been issued, fifteen thousand of them, show the important premiums to be as follows:

Beef Cattle—Shorthorns, $2,000 of which $1,000 is given by the Shorthorn Association; Herefords $1,200, of which $500 is given by the Hereford Association; Aberdeen Angus, $900, of which $300 is given by the Aberdeen Angus Association; Polled Durhams, $650, of which 200 is given by the Polled Durham Association; Galloways $300; Red Polls $150.

Dairy Cattle—Jerseys $800; Holstein Friesians, $250; Ayrshires $250; Gurnseys $250.

Swine—Berkshires $300; Poland Chinas 300; Duroc Jerseys 250; Chester Whites 200; Tomworths, 150.

Sheep—Shropshires $150; Southdowns 150; Oxford Downs, 150; Hampshire downs, 150; Cotswolds 150; Dorsets 100; American Merinos 100; Rambouillets 100; Cheviots 100.

For the following classes of horses premiums of 4,500, nearly 25 per cent of the total premium fund, are offered:

Light Horses—Light harness horses, roadsters, harness horses, gaited saddle horses, high step-pors, and ponies.

Heavy Horses—French draft, Percheron, French and German coach, Cleveland bays, Hackney, and American coach.

Premiums of $800 are offered for mules and jacks. At the State Fair which was held in Louisville last fall, the breeders of mules and jacks organized a State Association and the Association will look to the success of the exhibit this year. Mules and jacks have not been properly recognized in the State Fairs heretofore, and it is the intention to give them their proper place in the coming exhibitions.

Unusually handsome premiums are offered for garden and farm products, and the work of the women in the kitchen and sewing room.

Catalogues can be had by addressing L. B. Shropshire, Secretary, Room 25, Board of Trade, Louisville, Ky.

To Swear He Did Not See the Murderer Says Capt. Ewen.

Capt. B. J. Ewen, the principal witness for the prosecution, in the Maroon murder case, tells a story that he was offered $5,000 to testify in the White and Jett cases that he was mistaken in saying that he saw Curt Jett in the courthouse after the shots were fired, with the alternative of death if he did testify.

He claims that five $1,000 bills were proffered him, which he refused, Ewen claims that he can substantiate his statements with proof, but has not yet offered any proof.

Ewen made these allegations in a conversation with State Inspector Hines, but Judge Hines has not received an official report. He expects to probe into the matter further.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, sister of J. B. Maroon, stated that when she left her brother's side when he died, she met Jett and White.

"Jett told me," she said, "Hargis' money killed my brother, but that he fired the shot." He told me this in the presence of White. I then asked White if he had anything to do with it, and he answered that he did not fire the shot. They then walked down the street I have seen White lay my brother, waiting for chance to shoot him.

OLD MAIDS' INSURANCE.

In the matter of insurance, Denmark is ahead of the United States and even of England, though the matter has its Llyods, which gambles in about everything on which there is any kind of a risk or a chance.

The Old Maid's Insurance, for instance, is a novel kind which has had a great success among the Danes.

If a sum of, say, $250, be deposited on behalf of a girl at birth, she becomes entitled at the age of thirty, if she is still unmarried, to an annuity of $25. At the age of forty this is increased to $50, and an added increase of $25 follows with each ten years.

If, however, she marries before she becomes thirty years of age, the $250 is returned to her, and if she dies unmarried before that time her relatives receive $75 toward her funeral expenses—Brooklyn Times.

GOSSIP.

Gossip has made many a hell on earth. It has sullied the character of many a noble and innocent man and pure and respectable woman, it has made enemies of life long friends, parted lovers and divorced man and wife. It has filled many a life with misery and hatred, mistrust and suspicion.

The tongue of gossip drips a subtle poison, which slowly and secretly eats its way into the vitals of man's character, and blights his or her regard for the truth, for honesty and forbearance and any of the noble virtues that distinguish the gentleman from the poltroon and the high bred lady from the haggling market woman. Gossip is the open door to slander and slander is the murder of character and good name. Take care then how you gossip.

MONARCHS ASSASSINATED!

King Alexander and Queen Draga of Servia Murdered By Revolutionists Friday Morning.

DEED APPARENTLY APPROVED BY PEOPLE.

A military conspiracy has resulted in the blotting out of the Obrenovitch dynasty of the kingdom of Servia, and the proclaiming of a new ruler. King Alexander and Queen Draga, the Queen's two brothers, Premier Markovitch, the Minister of War, two royal aids, and two other officers are known to have been killed. The King and Queen were assassinated 2 o'clock in the morning in the royal palace, which the soldiers forcibly entered. A new Cabinet was formed after the assassination and Prince Peter Karageorgevitch, pretender to the throne, was proclaimed King. It is stated that the new ministers of Justice and Finance planned the revolution. Advances in relating the details of the crime, say that the King and Queen were chased to the palace roof and there murdered by the soldiers. The Queen's two brothers were shot at their homes. Prince Karageorgevitch, the new King, is 53 years old and has three children. He has lived at Geneva since 1891, and though he declares his innocence of any knowledge of the assassinations, the revolution is believed to have been hatched in the Swiss city.

The revolution was executed without any opposition on the part of the people of Belgrade, and the capital and the country remain tranquil.

The assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, with the Prince Nicodan, heir to the Servian throne, thus bringing to a close the Obrenovitch dynasty, was the culmination of a long period of misrule by the half-crazed royal family. The scandalous conduct of Queen Draga, which has been the talk of European courts for years, with the weakness of the King, affords the most forcible illustration on record of Prof. Lombroso's somewhat sensational theory that all the royal families of Europe are by heritage moral degenerates. The extravagant conduct of the Servian ruling family is given in the most natural and almost logical solution of the outbreak which finally resulted in their murder in the palace, together with others identified with the administration of the government.

The newspapers are almost unanimous in approving the revolution. Some compassion is felt for the unfortunate King, but the people generally admit that no other solution to an intolerant situation was possible.

Prince Karageorgevitch declares himself innocent of any knowledge of the tragedy at Belgrade. He said that through his grandfather he undoubtedly had the best right to the Servian throne and intended taking it if possible for the sake of his son, but he expected to meet with great difficulties and hoped for assistance from Austria.

Leading Servian statesmen were long of the opinion that a general uprising was imminent the King's arbitrary rule, his persecution of all persons opposed to Draga and her family, financial depression and the instability of things generally tending that way.

It was openly charged that the King and Queen were jointly responsible for the attempt on the life of the late King Milan; that, indeed, they hired the murderers sent to assassinate their father and father-in-law. The plotters could never have gone to work as they did if it had not been for the protection of the King and his concurrence, and that those caught red-handed were afterward suffocated in prison or tortured to death seems to indicate that Alexander feared their testimony. Among the conspirators foully murdered in their cells were Zivko Angelovitch, Governor of Shabatz, and another high official named Knezovitch, both of whom used to belong to Alexander's circle of intimates.

Almost without a murmur the Servian people have accepted the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga and the proclamation of a new ruler. COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A Successful and Enthusiastic Meeting—Splendid Addresses.

A FULL REPORT OF THE SESSION.

Crooked Creek, June 9.—Tuesday, June 9th was a red letter day for Sunday school work in Crittenden county. For enthusiasm, contribution, and eloquent addresses it was a record-breaker for Crittenden. State Field Worker, Rev. T. C. Gebauer, said that it was the best convention he had attended this year in point of attendance, attention and enthusiasm. Although a very busy time with the farmers, six hundred or more people were present.

At 9:45 a. m. President R. M. Franks called the convention to order. Devotional service was reverently conducted by Rev. U. G. Hughes. The genial words of welcome by the pastor, E. B. Blackburn and the happy response by the president made all feel that it was good to be there under the delightful tabernacle prepared by the good people of Crooked creek. Rev. Thompson, of Kuttawa, was unanimously chosen president of the convention. In a very affable manner with a few chosen words, colored with the genius-like humor of the speaker, Bro. Thompson assumed the chair, took up the over-crowded program with amateur skill eliminated the subjects of the absent members. There ran through the exercise of the day a vein of characteristic humor of the speakers. The excellent music rendered alternately by the Sugar Grove, Crooked Creek and Hurricane choirs was one of the charming features of the occasion.

The first address was delivered by State Field Worker, Rev. Gebauer, on the subject, "Lesson Preparation." This was very impressively done, the speaker emphasizing the importance of preparation; the helps used, what, when and how to study. The next speaker was Rev. Flynn on the subject: "What Can We Do?" He briefly reviewed to the past work of the county and in his eloquent appeal for the need of more evangelical work, showed how one man could devote all his time to the Sunday school work of the county by the small donations of 25 cents from each church member.

The reports of secretaries were called for but owing to the limited time, all were not read.

Rev. J. F. Price in a very pleasant way proceeded to raise the amount necessary to pay the county apportionment to the State Association and incidental expenses. A number of schools responded by cash and pledges. Sugar Grove Sunday school leading with a cash contribution of $7.90. A number of individuals contributed $1 each. Twenty-eight subscriptions were received for the reporter. The total amount of pledges and cash, $60. When all pledges are collected the county indebtedness can be paid in full.

The appointment of committees was next made and the convention took recess until 1:30.

The noon hour was greatly enjoyed by all, with so many good things to eat, covering hill, dale and jutting cliffs. Everybody obeyed the first impulse and became a participant in the bounteous supply.

The afternoon exercise began with song and praise service, conducted in a very inspiring and impressive way by Rev. W. T. Oakley. The first speaker was Rev. J. F. Price, his topic being a "Round Table on S. S. Management." Bro Price remarked that all had just enjoyed a "round table," and were not capacitated for another, especially of his "setting," so they would pass to the next subject. Prof. Chas. Evans next delivered a very able and forcible address on the subject, "Heart Power," setting forth that the heart is the controlling center; the dynamo of power, and out of it: re the issues of life, and in accord with the Savior's teaching, "that out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," therefore the Christ like spirit must permeate our lives and teaching if success is reached. The president very artfully passed from his own subject to the next one, "Decision Day." This was given by Rev. T. V. Joiner in a well prepared paper emphasizing the importance of its observance, looking to results, the teacher having a definite object in view, the ultimate salvation of the child. The president then very wisely interpreted the seemingly mystified subject, "The Four-in-Hand," and introduced Rev. J. W. Bigham, the first member of the team, who represented the parent in a very eloquent and masterly way, appealing for better home-training and the parents realization of their responsibility. Mr. Gebauer showed clearly that the pastor was the generalissimo of the school, an indispensable factor to successful work. A. A. Deboe in a limited talk, presented the duty and work of the superintendent. Rev. Virgil Elgin, Presiding Elder of Princeton District, on a moments notice was harnessed and in line, setting forth the duties possibilities and responsibility of the Sunday school teacher.

The report of committees was now read and adopted. The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. J. W. Flynn.
Secretary—B. F. Jacobs.
Asst. Sec'y—Mrs. Cora Crider.
Executive Committee—Clem S. Nunn, Chairman; J. E. Chittenden, Mrs. W. B. Yandell, Mrs. T. H. Cochran, Mrs. J. P. Pierce, J. W. Blue, Jas. A. Hill.
Financial Board—T. H. Cochran, Chairman; Prof. Chas. Evans, W. E. Minner, J. W. Blue, J. F. Dodge.
Supt. Normal Department—Rev. J. F. Price.
Supt. Home Department—R. M. Franks.

The committee on resolutions in their report recognized the blessings and providence of God upon our work during the year, paid a glowing tribute to the people of Crooked creek for their unstinted efforts and generous hospitality in entertaining the convention. Sugar Grove, Crooked creek and Hurricane choirs were fittingly remembered for their splendid music. The commendable work of Mr. Gebauer and all Sunday school workers was laid under tribute.

On motion, the retiring president, R. M. Franks, was given a rising vote of thanks for his indefatigable efforts and efficient work, during the long period of faithful service.

The following vote of thanks was unanimously tendered THE CRITTENDEN PRESS:

"Resolved that this convention acknowledge by a rising vote the indebtedness of the Association to THE PRESS and hereby tender our thanks and express our highest appreciation to the editor, Mr. R. C. Walker, for the many kind favors shown in presenting the Association work to the public.

The convention closed with a few graceful acknowledgements by the worthy president and the benediction.

For the latest styles and novelties in ladies summer goods to Taylor & Casman.

FROM CRITTENDEN.

Fellow in Trouble at Cincinnati.

The Cincinnati Post of June 7, says: Slashing away in the darkness with an ugly knife, Tom Nesbitt, 19, was brought to his senses early Saturday morning when the cold muzzle of a pistol was poked against his chin, and Officer Nadler, of the Merchants' Police commanded him to throw up his hands. Nadler did not know the youth had a knife, but discovered it when he opened the slide of his lantern. When he saw the gleaming knife he pounced on Nesbitt, with revolver extended and subdued him.

The scene took place in Robert J. Patton's awning and supply store, at 222 East Fourth Street. For several nights a burglar has been entering the building by passing through the Interurban Depot, on Sycamore street, and getting to the rear, prying open the window of the awning store with a jimmy that he secreted near the place.

Several stolen suit cases and hunting coats have been found in pawn shops. A valise with Judge Rufus B. Smith's name upon it, was among them.

Nesbitt, the police believe, is a crook who has been operating in Cincinnati for some time. He says that he came to Cincinnati from Sturgis, Ky., just two weeks ago, and admits that he has been making his living by burglarizing Patton's place.

Detective Houillon knows of another man, who, with Nesbitt, burglarized the same place last Tuesday night. Nesbitt says he was led into the job by the other man. He has wealthy relatives in Kentucky, but says both of his parents are dead.

A dispatch from Sturgis in regard to the above says: The Cincinnati Post or the culprit is in error as to his place of residence. He never lived here and is known to but few citizens. However, he was at one time a close neighbor, having been reared in Crittenden by respectable parents, and being a nephew of a leading farmer of that section, Mr. Finis Black. Despite his early training and respectable connections he is reported to have been rather tough for one of his tender years before branching out as a "professional." He has two older brothers, Virge and Claud, who were soldiers in the Philippines. If Nesbitt was here only two weeks ago, as reported saying, no one in town remembers having seen him.

BRYAN DEFINES ELOQUENCE.

Webster, the great orator, said of eloquence that "it must exist in the man, in the subject, and in the occasion." And then he proceeded to elaborate the statement, showing that it was a combination of high purpose, firm resolve, and dauntless spirit, speaking from every feature and reaching the heart of the hearer. There are two things absolutely essential to eloquence. First, the speaker must know what he is talking about; and second, he must mean what he says. Nothing can take the place of knowledge of the subject and earnestness. To these other things can be added, such as clearness of statement, felicity of expression, aptness of illustration, beauty in ornamentation and grace in delivery.

Eloquence is heart speaking to heart. There is no mistaking the cry of terror or the shout of joy, and so there is no misunderstanding the sincere message that passes from heart to heart.

The young man who would fit himself for real influence in the forum must himself feel deeply upon the subject which he discusses, and he cannot feel deeply without being in full sympathy with those whom he addresses. He must be able to give them information which they do not possess, or to state what they know more forcibly than they can state it themselves.—The Commoner.

JETT KILLED MARCUM.

So Testified Capt. Ewen at Jackson Yesterday.

Jackson, Ky., June 10.—Capt. Ewen was the first witness for the prosecution in the Marcum murder case. He was placed on the stand at 11 o'clock this morning. He testified, in substance, on being examined by Mr. Byrd:

"I was standing beside Marcum in the front door of the court house: I was on his right side. Tom White passed by close to Marcum and looked him in the face. White went out and down about six steps and still looked at Marcum. Marcum's arm was on my shoulder. Marcum said: 'Ewing, I am afraid of that fellow. He is a bad man.' Just then a pistol shot rang out close behind us. Marcum's hand dropped off my shoulder and he fell backwards. He uttered a cry of pain. I whirled my head and saw Curt Jett coming with a pistol in both hands. I ran, thinking he was going to shoot me. I then saw a motion in the side court house door. A man peered out. He stepped out and I saw it was Curt Jett. He walked out towards the well. He had his hands behind him and his hat was pulled over his eyes.

"I helped carry Marcum across the street to Dr. Kash's office, where he died a few minutes later. Fifteen minutes after the shooting I saw White and Jett walking a hundred feet away. I was well acquainted with Jett and saw him often. After the killing Jett was pale and kept his face toward the ground. Marcum's face was powder burned from the second shot, which went through his skull."

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A Successful and Enthusiastic Meeting—Splendid Addresses.

A FULL REPORT OF THE SESSION.

Crooked Creek, June 9.—Tuesday, June 9th was a red letter day for Sunday school work in Crittenden county. For enthusiasm, contribution, and eloquent addresses it was a record-breaker for Crittenden. State Field Worker, Rev. T. C. Gebauer, said that it was the best convention he had attended this year in point of attendance, attention and enthusiasm. All though a very busy time with the farmers, six hundred or more people were present.

At 9:45 a. m. President R. M. Franks called the convention to order. Devotional service was reverently conducted by Rev. U. G. Hughes. The genial words of welcome by the pastor, E. B. Blackburn and the happy response by the president made all feel that it was good to be there under the delightful tabernacle prepared by the good people of Crooked Creek. Rev. Thompson, of Kuttawa, was unanimously chosen president of the convention. In a very affable manner with a few chosen words, colored with the genius-like humor of the speaker, Bro. Thompson assumed the chair, took up the over-crowded program with master skill eliminated the subjects of the absent members. There ran through the exercise of the day a vein of characteristic humor of the speakers. The excellent music rendered alternately by the Sugar Grove, Crooked Creek and Hurricane choirs was one of the charming features of the occasion.

The first address was delivered by State Field Worker, Rev. Gebauer, on the subject, "Lesson Preparation." This was very impressively done, the speaker emphasizing the importance of preparation; the helps used, what, when and how to study. The next speaker was Rev. Flynn on the subject, "What Can We Do?" He briefly reviewed the past work of the county and in his eloquent appeal for the need of more evangelical work, showed how one man could devote all his time to the Sunday school work of the county by the small donations of 25 cents from each church member.

The reports of secretaries were called for but owing to the limited time, all were not read.

Rev. J. F. Price in a very pleasant way proceeded to raise the amount necessary to pay the county apportionment to the State Association and incidental expenses. A number of schools responded by cash and pledges. Sugar Grove Sunday school leading with a cash contribution of $7.90. A number of individuals contributed $1 each. Twenty-eight subscriptions were received for the reporter. The total amount of pledges and cash, $60. When all pledges are collected the county indebtedness can be paid in full.

The appointment of committees was next made and the convention took recess until 1:30.

The noon hour was greatly enjoyed by all with so many good things to eat, covering bill, dais and jotted cliffs. Everybody obeyed the first impulse and became a participant in the bounteous supply.

The afternoon exercise began with song and praise service, conducted in a very inspiring and impressive way by Rev. W. T. Oakley. The first speaker was Rev. J. F. Price, his topic being "Round Table on S. S. Management." Bro. Price remarked that all had just enjoyed a "round table," and were not capacitated for another, especially of his "setting," so they would pass to the next subject. Prof. Chas. Evans next delivered a very able and forcible address on the subject, "Heart Power," setting forth that the heart is the controlling center; the dynamo of power, and out of it are the issues of life, and in accord with the Savior's teaching, "that out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," therefore the Christ-like spirit must permeate our lives and teaching if success is reached. The president very artfully passed from his own subject to the next one, "Decision Day." This was given by Rev. T. V. Joiner in a well prepared paper emphasizing the importance of its observance, looking to results, the teacher having a definite object in view, the ultimate salvation of the child. The president then very wisely interpreted the seemingly mystified subject, "The Four-in-Hand," and introduced Rev. J. W. Bigham, the first member of the team, who represented the parent in a very eloquent and masterly way, appealing for better home-training and the parents realization of their responsibility. Mr. Gebauer showed clearly that the pastor was the general head of the school, an indispensable factor to successful work. A. A. Deboe in a limited talk, presented the duty and work of the superintendent. Rev. Virgil Elgin, Presiding Elder of Princeton District, on a moments notice was harnessed and in line, setting forth the duties possibilities and responsibility of the Sunday school teacher.

The report of committees was now read and adopted. The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. J. W. Flynn.
Secretary—B. F. Jacobs.
Asst. Sec'y—Mrs. Cora Crider.
Executive Committee—Clem S. Nuhn, Chairman; J. E. Chittenden, Mrs. W. B. Yandell, Mrs. T. H. Cochran, Mrs. J. P. Pierce, J. W. Blue, Jas. A. Hill.
Financial Board—T. H. Cochran, Chairman; Prof. Chas. Evans, W. E. Minner, J. W. Blue, J. F. Dodge.
Supt. Normal Department—Rev. J. F. Price.
Supt. Home Department—R. M. Franks.

The committee on resolutions in their report recognized the blessings and providence of God upon our work during the year, paid a glowing tribute to the people of Crooked Creek for their untiring efforts and generous hospitality in entertaining the convention. Sugar Grove, Crooked Creek and Hurricane choirs were fittingly remembered for their splendid music. The commendable work of Mr. Gebauer and all Sunday school workers was laid under tribute.

On motion, the retiring president R. M. Franks, was given a rising vote of thanks for his indefatigable efforts and efficient work, during the long period of faithful service.

The following vote of thanks was unanimously tendered The Crittenden Press:

"Resolved that this convention acknowledge by a rising vote the indebtedness of the Association to The Press and hereby tender our thanks and express our highest appreciation to the editor, Mr. R. C. Walker, for the many kind favors shown in presenting the Association work to the public.

The convention closed with a few graceful acknowledgements by the worthy president and the benediction.

FROM CRITTENDEN.

Fellow in Trouble at Cincinnati.

The Cincinnati Post of June 7, says: Slashing away in the darkness with an ugly knife, Tom Nesbitt, 19, was brought to his senses early Saturday morning when the cold muzzle of a pistol was poked against his chin, and Officer Nadler, of the Merchants' Police commanded him to throw up his hands. Nadler did not know the youth had a knife, but discovered it when he opened the slide of his lantern. When he saw the gleaming knife he pounced on Nesbitt, with revolver extended and subdued him.

The scene took place in Robert J. Patton's awning and supply store, at 222 East Fourth Street. For several nights a burglar has been entering the building by passing through the Interurban Depot, on Sycamore street, and getting to the rear, prying open the window of the awning store with a jimmy that he secreted near the place.

Did You Ever Notice

THAT WE ARE ALWAYS ACTUALLY SELLING SOMETHINGS FOR
MUCH LESS MONEY THAN SAME CAN BE BOUGHT ELSEWHERE ?

We say "actually selling" because almost every advertisement you see is full of such catchy expressions as, "we are the leaders in low prices," "we'll save you money," "this is the store for bargains" etc. This sounds well and is of course just what you expect every merchant to say. BUT IS IT CONVINCING? wouldn't it be a good idea to occasionally show you the saving? That's exactly what we are everlastingly doing. Some stores when they get a bargain they put it in their pockets, they never let you "on to it." We do it differently, when we get a bargain we give it to our friends and customers, and we are always getting them and we are always giving them. Now, here for instance, are three or four and they are good big ones, too, if they were not, you wouldn't catch us advertising them as bargains. When you get 100 cents for a dollar you don't get a bargain, you just get your money's worth, but when you get $1.50 to $2.00 for a dollar you get a genuine bargain. THAT'S WHAT WE'VE GOT.

600 yards of Fine Batiste and Dimities, bought at one half price, they are all new styles and as pretty as anything shown this season. Regular 20c goods. Our Price 10c
500 yards of fine Lawns and Dimities, all new styles. Regular 10c and 12 1-2c goods. Our Price 7 1-2c

250 pairs of Ladies Fine Black Hose, French Lisle, lace stripe, lace stripe extends to toe. As good as you can buy elsewhere for 25c. Our Price 16c
250 pairs Mens Fine Black Socks, lace stripe, French lisle. A regular 25c sock. Our Price 14c

You can't match these elsewhere, and then we have some more, and the more you investigate the more pleased we are.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT:—$1.00

Kentucky is not still "the dark and bloody ground," but there are some spots that need laundrying badly.

Crittenden county needs a new court house as urgently as the State needs a new capitol, and that is putting it pretty strong.

And we will not forget to rise and remark that the roads must be put in order the same season of the year in which they are traveled.

Now that the ax is laid at the root of the trouble in Breathitt, let the blows fall thick and fast, until no upas tree is left standing.

Mob law is a very bad, bad thing, but it is too gentle, and sweet, and soothing, to think of along with the moral deformities who burned Capt. Ewen's home at Jackson.

We are much obliged to the Sunday School workers of the county for their expression of esteem for and appreciation of the PRESS. We don't talk it much, but we have believed all along that this publication is worth its weight in radium every week.

Gov. Beckham is going to have law and order, if he has to fight for them. With troops at Jackson to reassure the witnesses, and soldiers at Maysville to protect three colored defendants from mob violence, he is making a war record that meets the approval of all Kentucky.

Circuit court next week and the grand jury will probably be able to arrange for some light on the original, unique and multitudinous "bunco steerer" of Crittenden county. If half of the unfathered tales are true, there are others besides the heathen Chinese "that for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain" are peculiar.

The continual developments in the mineral field in this belt is taking that dark brown taste out of the mouth of the skeptic, who has grown weary of straining his optic nerve in a vain attempt to see the beginning of the end. Like poor Lo, the doubter is disappearing before and underneath the tide of the real thing.

A recent publication renders so simple a thing that has always puzzled us that we print it here for the edification of our farmer friends in particular, though they may have been on to it long ago: "From the scientific publication, 'Science,' we learn the reason corn pops is because 'the starch polygons are of such nature and construction as to facilitate expansion and render it explosive in character; there is a fracture of the particle along its two radii, the endosperm swelling very considerably, the peripheral portions cohering with the hull, but the fractured quarters turning back to meet below the embryo." How simple; and we never knew it before.

Big Gathering of Colored People

The Annual District Meeting of General Baptists, colored, is in session at the church in this city, and will be in session all week. Delegates and ministers from many sections of the State are in attendance.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.

Services of the Episcopal church will be held in the Cumberland Presbyterian house of worship on Sunday as follows:

Celebration of the Holy Communion, 7:30, A. M.; Morning Prayer with sermon, 10:45, A. M.; Evening prayer and sermon, 7:30 P. M.

TO BE MARRIED TODAY.

Texas rice will be used to a very large extent today in showering good wishes on Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, nee Shelby, bears one of Kentucky's honored names, while Mr. Wilson has so long been "our John" that to attempt word painting his genial personality would take up more space than the PRESS has to spare. The marriage ceremony takes place at the home of the Shelby's in Fredonia at high noon, the Episcopal church ritual being used.

THE TENT MEETING.

Large Crowds Attend and Great Interest Manifested.

The big tent is crowded every evening, and fair sized audiences attend the afternoon services. No revival services held in Marion for years has attracted more widespread attention and started off under more favorable auspices than the meeting now in progress under the big tent southwest of the court house square. The local ministers generally are taking an active part, and all the churches in town are represented in the congregations.

Rev. Conway, of the Baptist church, preached an able sermon Sunday. In the afternoon Prof. Evans conducted a Young People's meeting and delivered an address on, "Does Christian Living Pay?" Sunday evening Rev. Joiner, of the Methodist church, spoke with force to a large audience. Revs. Bigham, Price, Oakley, Blackburn, Flynn, Conway, Joiner, Thomas, are taking an active interest, and alternately occupy the stand. Services in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 7:45.

The collections for defraying the incidental expenses of the meeting have been especially gratifying to the managers, showing that the public is responding to the spirit of the meeting.

Prof. Evans, of the Christian church, T. H. Cochran of the Methodist, L. E. Crider of the Cumberland Presbyterian, J. C. Elder of the Presbyterian, and J. F. Dodge of the Baptist church, constitute the committee on finance.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

Curtis Jett and Tom White, on trial at Jackson charged with the murder of James B. Marcum, testified Monday. Both denied any connection whatever with the assassination and Jett declared he was at a point near the postoffice when the shots were fired. Other witnesses, one of whom was Jett's aunt, and another an adopted son of Jailer Spencer, Jett's uncle, testified substantially to the same effect. The evidence in the case was finished Tuesday. The cases against Ed. Tharp and Joe Crawford, the men accused of burning Ewen's hotel, were referred to the grand jury for investigation, and that body refused to indict the accused and they were dismissed.

WORK OF FIENDS.

Capt. Ewen's Home at Jackson Destroyed.

A SUBSCRIPTION FUND STARTED.

Another chapter of crime was added to the dark history of Breathitt county Sunday when the hotel and home of Capt. B. J. Ewen, the chief witness for the prosecution in the trials of Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with the murder of Marcum, was destroyed by fire, at the hands of incendiaries. The hotel, valued at $10,000, represented all of Ewing's savings, and his family are left homeless and penniless. The hotel was a new structure, just completed. The insurance was canceled last week, owing to the state of lawlessness existing at Jackson.

Two men—teamsters of Hargis Bros—were arrested on suspicion of firing the building. Bail was offered for them by County Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan, but they were held in custody for action by the grand jury.

A subscription fund has been started for the benefit of Captain Ewen.

RAILROAD TALK.

The Paducah News-Democrat of Saturday said: "While in Salem, Livingston county, Friday a Paducah manufacturer was informed on good authority that the Illinois Central had put a surveying party in the field with the intention of running a line from Crayneville, Crittenden county, on the O. V. division to Salem, nine miles away. The ultimate intention, is to continue the new branch to Golconda, Ill., where the I. C. now has a terminal. By making connections with a transfer at that point the I. C. will have a track through the heart of the newly-developed mineral and fluor spar fields of Livingston and Crittenden counties, Ky., and Pope county, Ill., with direct outlets over its own rails at either end of the branch.

Should the road be built, there will be rejoicing among owners of mines and mineral properties in West Kentucky. Heretofore the great drawback to successful operation of the mines has been the lack of adequate transportation facilities and the prohibitive freight rates on spar and ore. With these obstacles removed a boom in the field is certain.

At present only the famous "Old Jim" mine, near Marion is operating with anything like regularity. Blue and Nunn, the owners have an offer of $250,000 for the mine, according to information received here, and will probably sell at that figure.

Two years ago they bought the property for a song.

ELECT A NEW KING.

The Servian Senate and Skupshina met in Belgrade Monday, and in less than two hours' time Prince Peter Karageorgevitch was unanimously elected King with all the formality required by the country's Constitution.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the kind people in and around Ford's Ferry for their kindness shown us during the illness and death of our darling baby. As time passes on and bereavements fall to their lot, we pray God's blessing upon them, as the only true comforter in the time of trouble.

OWING TO RUSH OF BUSINESS

Dr. Goldstein Decides to Remain Over
Saturday June 20th

Remember the eye is the most sensitive organ we have. In its normal condition we can see at all distances alike; we can admire the beauties of nature and everything that is beautiful in life. The eye is often abused and neglected, the sight becomes impaired and requires artificial aid, and as medical attention is of no consequence there is some method to restore the sight to its normal condition, and that is the use of proper glasses. Dr. Goldstein will be in the city until Sunday, June twenty fifth. This is the opportunity of your life to get glasses fitted to your eyes to make you see properly and to rest and strengthen them. Dr. Goldstein are well known to some of our citizens and are highly recommended. Dr. Goldstein charge you nothing for examination and consultation and will give you proper advice. The value of perfect fitting glasses with reference to health can not be over estimated. Their effect upon the nervous system is direct, and, through this directly upon the entire organization.

A few of the troubles which result directly from neglect in this particular neuralgia, sick headache and nervous prostration. In addition to the general diseases I have enumerated the following local affections often result from uncorrected errors of refraction: conjunctivitis (granulated lids) keratitis, with ulcers of cornea, paralysis of the nerves, asthopia of nerves. A sad mistake is made by most people in putting off spectacles too long. The old advice, "Don't begin specs until you have to," has done a world of harm. Anyone can, by squinting and straining and looking sharp go along time without spectacles, but he is sowing seeds of destruction to his eyes.

Consultation and examination free. At the New Marion Hotel.

Did You Ever Notice

THAT WE ARE ALWAYS ACTUALLY SELLING SOMETHINGS FOR
MUCH LESS MONEY THAN SAME CAN BE BOUGHT ELSEWHERE ?

We say "actually selling" because almost every advertisement you see is full of such catchy expressions as, "we are the leaders in low prices," "we'll save you money," "this is the store for bargains" etc. This sounds well and is of course just what you expect every merchant to say. BUT IS IT CONVINCING? wouldn't it be a good idea to occasionally show you the saving? That's exactly what we are everlastingly doing. Some stores when they get a bargain they put it in their pockets, they never let you "on to it." We do it differently, when we get a bargain we give it to our friends and customers, and we are always getting them and we are always giving them. Now, here for instance, are three or four and they are good big ones, too, if they were not, you wouldn't catch us advertising them as bargains. When you get 100 cents for a dollar you don't get a bargain, you just get your money's worth, but when you get $1.50 to $2.00 for a dollar you get a genuine bargain. THAT'S WHAT WE'VE GOT.

600 yards of Fine Batiste and Dimities, bought at one half price, they are all new styles and as pretty as anything shown this season. Regular 20c goods. Our Price 10c

500 yards of fine Lawns and Dimities, all new styles. Regular 10c and 12 1-2c goods. Our Price 7 1-2c

250 pairs of Ladies Fine Black Hose, French Lisle, lace stripe, lace stripe extends to toe. As good as you can buy elsewhere for 25c. Our Price 16c

250 pairs Mens Fine Black Socks, lace stripe, French lisle. A regular 25c sock. Our Price 14c

You can't match these elsewhere, and then we have some more, and the more you investigate the more pleased we are.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT:—$1.00

Kentucky is not still "the dark and bloody ground," but there are some spots that need laundrying badly.

Crittenden county needs a new court house as urgently as the State needs a new capitol, and that is putting it pretty strong.

And we will not forget to rise and remark that the roads must be put in order the same season of the year in which they are traveled.

Now that the ax is laid at the root of the trouble in Breathitt, let the blows fall thick and fast, until no upas tree is left standing.

Mob law is a very bad, bad thing, but it is too gentle, and too sweet, and soothing, to think of along with the moral deformities who burned Capt. Ewen's home at Jackson.

We are much obliged to the Sunday School workers of the county for their expression of esteem for and appreciation of the PRESS. We don't talk it much, but we have believed all along that this publication is worth its weight in radium every week.

Gov. Beckham is going to have law and order, if he has to fight for them. With troops at Jackson to reassure the witnesses, and soldiers at Maysville to protect three colored defendants from mob violence, he is making a war record that meets the approval of all Kentucky.

Circuit court next week and the grand jury will probably be able to arrange for some light on the original, unique and multitudinous "bunco steerer" of Crittenden county. If half of the unfathered tales are true, there are others besides the heathen Chinese "that for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain" are peculiar.

The continual developments in the mineral field in this belt is taking that dark brown taste out of the mouth of the skeptic, who has grown weary of straining his optic nerve in a vain attempt to see the beginning of the end. Like poor Lo, the doubter is disappearing before and underneath the tide of the real thing.

A recent publication renders so simple a thing that has always puzzled us that we print it here for the edification of our farmer friends in particular, though they may have been on to it long ago: "From the scientific publication, 'Science,' we learn the reason corn pops is because 'the starch polygons are of such nature and construction as to facilitate expansion and render it explosive in character; there is a fracture of the particle along its two radii, the endosperm swelling very considerably, the peripheral portions cohering with the hull, but the fractured quarters turning back to meet below the embryo." How simple; and we never knew it before.

OUT OF JAIL.

Ed. Farmer, serving a jail sentence for sending a threatening letter, was released from custody last week on payment of the balance of his fine, $64.

SOLD WHISKY TO A MINOR.

Ed. Brasher, of the Mexico neighborhood, is in jail to work out a fine of sixty dollars assessed against him for selling whisky to a minor.

DIVORCE WANTED.

Jas. Lane has filed suit praying to be divorced from his wife, Luona Lane. In the petition the plaintiff alleges the Scriptural grounds for his cause of complaint.

Big Gathering of Colored People

The Annual District Meeting of General Baptists, colored, is in session at the church in this city, and will be in session all week. Delegates and ministers from many sections of the State are in attendance.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.

Services of the Episcopal church will be held in the Cumberland Presbyterian house of worship on Sunday as follows:

Celebration of the Holy Communion, 7:30, A. M.; Morning Prayer with sermon, 10:45, A. M.; Evening prayer and sermon, 7:30 P. M.

TO BE MARRIED TODAY.

Texas rice will be used to a very large extent today in showering good wishes on Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, nee Shelby, bears one of Kentucky's honored names, while Mr. Wilson has so long been "our John" that to attempt word painting his genial personality would take up more space than the PRESS has to spare. The marriage ceremony takes place at the home of the Shelby's in Fredonia at high noon, the Episcopal church ritual being used.

THE TENT MEETING.

Large Crowds Attend and Great Interest Manifested.

The big tent is crowded every evening, and fair sized audiences attend the afternoon services. No revival services held in Marion for years has attracted more wide-spread attention and started off under more favorable auspices than the meeting now in progress under the big tent southwest of the court house square. The local ministers generally are taking an active part, and all the churches in town are represented in the congregations.

Rev. Conway, of the Baptist church, preached an able sermon Sunday. In the afternoon Prof. Evans conducted a Young People's meeting and delivered an address on, "Does Christian Living Pay?" Sunday evening Rev. Joiner, of the Methodist church, spoke with force to a large audience. Revs. Bigham, Price, Oakley, Blackburn, Flynn, Conway, Joiner, Thomas, are taking an active interest, and alternately occupy the stand. Services in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 7:45.

The collections for defraying the incidental expenses of the meeting have been especially gratifying to the managers, showing that the public is responding to the spirit of the meeting.

Prof. Evans, of the Christian church, T. H. Cochran of the Methodist, L. E. Crider of the Cumberland Presbyterian, J. C. Elder of the Presbyterian, and J. F. Dodge of the Baptist church, constitute the committee on finance.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

Curtis Jett and Tom White, on trial at Jackson charged with the murder of James B. Marcum, testified Monday. Both denied any connection whatever with the assassination and Jett declared he was at a point near the postoffice when the shots were fired. Other witnesses, one of whom was Jett's aunt, and another an adopted son of Jailer Spencer, Jett's uncle, testified substantially to the same effect. The evidence in the case was finished Tuesday. The cases against Ed. Tharp and Joe Crawford, the men accused of burning Ewen's hotel, were referred to the grand jury for investigation, and that body refused to indict the accused and they were dismissed.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Fredonia Creamery Burned With Heavy Loss.

The Fredonia Creamery was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning, of last week. The entire plant and building was destroyed. The loss, amounting to about $3,000, with very little insurance. Two hundred pounds of butter ready for shipment was also consumed. The origin of the fire was unknown.

The creamery was the property of Mr. J. E. Crider. It was a thriving industry. The creamery will be rebuilt at once, and the capacity greatly enlarged.

THE COUNTRY OVER.

The Story of Current Events Told in Brief Paragraphs.

NEWS FROM EVERY SECTION.

The Secretary of the navy has approved the plans for three new 13,000 ton battleships.

Faustina Guillermo, the most notorious outlaw in the island of Luzon, was captured by the constabulary.

At Sneedville, Tenn., Lewis Bolin, an old man, was murdered by his thirteen year old stepdaughter who used an ax in defending her brother, whom Bolin was chastizing.

'13' AND THE WHITE HOUSE.

To those who are influenced by the old superstition of sitting down to table 13 in number, an invitation from the President to dine at the White House off of the new state service of china, manufactured by the famous firm of Wedgwood, may well be looked at askance. Whether intentionally or by accident the mystic number is curiously repeated in the crest and even in the transaction by which the service was ordered. Any one who visits the St. Louis Exposition may observe the former, as the service is to be placed there on view. To begin with there are, of course, thirteen stars and thirteen bars on the shield, representing the original thirteen States of the Union. In one claw the eagle grasps thirteen bolts, and in the other an olive branch upon which there are thirteen leaves and thirteen berries. The pinions of the eagles, too, have thirteen feathers, and it will be found that there are thirteen letters in the motto, "E Pluribus Unum." Further, there are thirteen letters in the christian names of the President and his wife—Theodore and Annie—and thirteen letters also in Staffordshire, the county in England in which the Wedgwood ware is manufactured; but perhaps the most significant fact of all in this respect is that the service was delivered on Friday, the 13th of February of this year.

The Russian Government has announced that neither outside aid nor advice will be received on account of the recent Kishenev massacre. No protest will be raised by the Czar's Government if entry is refused Russian Jew emigrants by any other country.

Chairman Pedley, of the Daviess county Democratic committee, has placed an account of $200 for election expenses at the late State primary, in the hands of a law firm at Owensboro for collection. WISDOM OF PRIVATE LIFE.

Thos. Jefferson, the "Sage of Monticello," is known the world over for his political wisdom, but, as the philosopher of private life, his reputation is not so widely extended. From an exchange we learn that he had for the guidance of his own daily life the following set of rules, the wisdom of which will be evident at reading:

Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.

Never spend your money before you have earned it.

Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap.

Pride costs more than hunger, thirst or cold.

We seldom repent having eaten too little.

Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.

How much pain evils have cost us that have never happened.

Take things always by the smooth handle.

When angry count ten before you speak; if very angry count a hundred.

POINTED QUESTIONS

Asked By a Minister and Answers Suggested.

In a letter to the ministers of a neighboring city suggesting thoughts for sermons, Elder H. M. Brooks, of Paris, couples these questions with his own suggestions:

"Have you any sisters in your congregation too feeble to climb the church steps on Sunday who on any night in the week can climb two or three flights of stairs and dance their toe nails off? Give them a little attention.

Do the sisters make a business of playing progressive Flinch for prizes? If so, be honest with them. Tell them that it is no worse to gamble in a saloon than it is in a parlor.

Have you any older brother who can't keep awake 30 minutes in a church while on the other hand if you should put him in a room where he could hear his notes and mortgages drawing interest you would have to chloroform him to get him to sleep. If so, give him a little hell.

Do any of your members pray for the poor on Sunday and prey off them all the rest of the week. Be careful, my brethren, do you know the attitude of Jesus Christ to the people?

When you start a committee out to ascertain the cause of so much prostitution, drunkenness and gambling, they go to the fallen girl who has no one to protect her, but they never go to the woman who marries for money or convenience, who has a lover to visit her while her husband is down town or in the counting rooms. They go to the man who has his beer sent to his home by the case. And when you get on the warpath on the gambling question you go to the fellow who has the slot machines but you say nothing to the church member who gambles in his home. Train your guns on the ungodly church members.

"THE HIGHLANDS OF ONTARIO FOR YOUR HOLIDAYS."

With the knowledge of what America has to offer the summer tourist and the rest and health seeker, the thousands of summer travelers who spend their vacation in "The Highlands of Ontario," unhesitatingly pronounce the Muskoka Lake region the ideal, the perfectly satisfying summer resort. Such an ideal is a combination of two features—primal nature is a perfect bewilderment of beauty, charm and variety, along with the facilities for most of the modern necessities and conveniences. In addition to these, the even temperature, the altitude (1000 feet above the sea), the health giving ozone from pine, hemlock and fir, and the dark, soft waters of innumerable lakes teeming with the game of fresh water fish. What more has a weary, nerve-racked man or lover of nature to desire?

Handsome, illustrated, descriptive publications will be sent free on application to R. McSmith, Southern Passenger Agent Grand Trunk Railway, 124 Woodward Ave., Detroit.

NEW STAMPS.

There will be a new issue of U. S. postage stamps to commemorate the St. Louis World's Fair. Jefferson's portrait will be used on the two cent stamp and probably Napoleon's on the five cent. McKinley's features will probably appear on one of the denominations.

A BANKRUPT.

New York, June 11.—W. J. Hendrick, of New York, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District court, for the Southern district of New York. The assets are stated as approximately $4,000 and the liabilities at $177,000. Hendricks is a lawyer and promoter, and had offices in Louisville and Frankfort. He was formerly Attorney General of Kentucky.

VERY YOUNG PEOPLE.

At the county clerk's office last Monday morning, Squire W. C. Rucker joined in wedlock S. J. Glass to Miss Ora Calvert. The groom is 16 years old and the bride but 15. They are both residents of this county and live east of Princeton. In the ardor of youthful love we hope their happiness will be complete and never wane.—Princeton Leader.

A GLOOMY VIEW.

A Sturgis correspondent takes this view of the present crop conditions in Union county: The outlook in Union, used to bumper crops, bursting granaries and prosperous times, is exceedingly discouraging this year, owing to continued wet weather and bad conditions generally. Wheat will not average 50 per cent, corn is not up to the standard and oats and tobacco will fall below former expectations.

A PRETTY FAD.

The fashion of going without a hat promises to be followed more widely this season than ever before. It is a pretty custom, extremely becoming and very beneficial for the hair. There is but one drawback to it, and that is that it is hard on the complexion.

Freckles are not becoming, nor is a coat of tan a desirable addition to an autumn toilet. The girl with an eye to the future will carry a parasol when she goes without a hat.

ONE HUNDRED PER DAY.

Mr. Ware, the commissioner of pensions, says that the work of his bureau on the civil war lists will continue for several years to come. He says that the survivors of the men who fought for the Union reach over 900,000, of whom 700,000 are carried on the pension rolls. He says that the ravages of death now shows that about 100 are now answering the last roll call every day. This rate will be constantly increasing and in ten years from now, taps will have sounded for 500,000 of the veterans.

MIDSUMMER COOKERY.

The Delineator for July offers a number of features of interest to the culinary department of the household, Miles Bradford's entertaining paper in the "Carlotta and I" series. An Emergency Luncheon" includes some admirable suggestions for the utilizing of leftovers. A feature of especial timeliness is the two pages portraying hot weather beverages, daintily arranged on trays for serving and with the recipe for the same. Fruit salad is the subject of a paper; tempting ways of serving tomatoes are given in another and the preparation of toasts both plain and sweet are also fully explained.

DONT'S FOR THE EYES.

Don't use the eyes when they are tired or weak from illness.

Don't bathe eyes that are inflamed with cold water; use warm water.

Don't wear a veil with black dots or one woven with double thread.

Don't open the eyes under water when bathing, especially salt water.

Don't neglect to bathe the eyes occasionally in salt water. A weak solution is best.

Don't look too steadily from a car window, at objects that are constantly flying past you.

Don't sleep opposite a window, or where a strong light will strike the eyes on awakening.

Don't work longer than two hours without closing the eyes and resting for five minutes.

Don't expose the eyes at any time to a strong light such as sun light, or gas, or lamp light.

Don't sit facing a strong light. If possible let the light fall on the work or book from over the shoulder.

Don't have colored shades on the lamps. Use white or ground glass. If you must have a colored shade, let it be green.

Don't rub the eyes by outward motion, but toward the nose, as this rounds the ball and preserves the normal shape.

GRAT HOARD OF GOLD.

Nearly one thousand three hundred tons of gold lie today in the vaults of the Treasury of the United States, the greatest hoard of the yellow metal ever gathered in the history of the world. Four hundred tons of this gold are piled, like bags of salt, within the four walls of the Subtreasury in Wall street, New York. Outside the Treasury hoard there is in circulation throughout the country a nearly equal amount of gold coin, making more than two thousand five hundred tons of gold in the United States bearing the imprint of the eagle. The value of this coin is more than $1,260,000,000.

THE BAND PLAYED ON.

When "the Great American Water Circus" was giving a performance at Uniontown, with 1500 people present, the Evansville packet landed at the wharfboat nearby. The wheel struck the circus barge, crushing in a small room, producing a great noise. Some one yelled, "fire!" women and children screamed and some fainted. Fortunately the band played on. Those with presence of mind sat still, and with the quieting talk of the circus manager, order was restored without loss of life.

10,000 Suicides in Four Years.

It is said 10,000 people committed suicide between the years 1897 and 1901. An investigation of these suicides has developed the following facts:

That men commit suicide between the ages of thirty and forty years.

Women between twenty and thirty.

Over three men to one woman commit suicide.

That married men are more given to suicide than single men. The causes, in a great majority of cases, that lead to self-destruction are whisky, theft, and women.

Begs for It.

"13" AND THE WHITE HOUSE.

To those who are influenced by the old superstition of sitting down to table 13 in number, an invitation from the President to dine at the White House off of the new state service of china, manufactured by the famous firm of Wedgwood, may well be looked at askance. Whether intentionally or by accident the mystic number is curiously repeated in the crest and even in the transaction by which the service was ordered. Any one who visits the St. Louis Exposition may observe the former, as the service is to be placed there on view. To begin with there are, of course, thirteen stars and thirteen bars on the shield, representing the original thirteen States of the Union. In one claw the eagle grasps thirteen bolts, and in the other an olive branch upon which there are thirteen leaves and thirteen berries. The pinions of the eagles, too, have thirteen feathers, and it will be found that there are thirteen letters in the motto, "E Pluribus Unum." Further, there are thirteen letters in the christian names of the President and his wife—Theodore and Annie—and thirteen letters also in Staffordshire, the county in England in which the Wedgwood ware is manufactured; but perhaps the most significant fact of all in this respect is that the service was delivered on Friday, the 13th of February of this year.

The Russian Government has announced that neither outside aid nor advice will be received on account of the recent Kishinev massacre. No protest will be raised by the Czar's Government if entry is refused Russian Jew emigrants by any other country.

Mrs. Mary McKnight confessed to the poisoning of her brother, and his wife and baby, at Kaskaskia, Mich. The attention of officers has since been directed to eight other deaths which appear suspicious in the light of Mrs. McKnight's confession.

Chairman Pedley, of the Daviess county Democratic committee, has placed an account of $200 for election expenses at the late State primary, in the hands of a law firm at Owensboro for collection. WISDOM OF PRIVATE LIFE.

Thos. Jefferson, the "Sage of Monticello," is known the world over for his political wisdom, but, as the philosopher of private life, his reputation is not so widely extended. From an exchange we learn that he had for the guidance of his own daily life the following set of rules, the wisdom of which will be evident at reading:

Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today.

Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.

Never spend your money before you have earned it.

Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap.

Pride costs more than hunger, thirst or cold.

We seldom repent having eaten too little.

Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.

How much pain evils have cost us that have never happened.

Take things always by the smooth handle.

When angry count ten before you speak; if very angry count a hundred.

POINTED QUESTIONS.

Asked By a Minister and Answers Suggested.

In a letter to the ministers of a neighboring city suggesting thoughts for sermons, Elder H. M. Brooks, of Paris, couples these questions with his own suggestions:

"Have you any sisters in your congregation too feeble to climb the church steps on Sunday who on any night in the week can climb two or three flights of stairs and dance their toe nails off? Give them a little attention."

Do the sisters make a business of playing progressive Finch for prizes? If so, be honest with them. Tell them that it is no worse to gamble in a saloon than it is in a parlor.

Have you any older brother who can't keep awake 30 minutes in a church while on the other hand if you should put him in a room where he could hear his notes and mortgages drawing interest you would have to chloroform him to get him to sleep. If so, give him a little help.

Do any of your members pray for the poor on Sunday and pray off them all the rest of the week. Be careful, my brethren, do you know the attitude of Jesus Christ to the people?

When you start a committee out to ascertain the cause of so much prostitution, drunkenness and gambling, they go to the fallen girl who has no one to protect her, but they never go to the woman who marries for money or convenience, who has a lover to visit her while her husband is down town or in the counting rooms. They go to the man who has his beer sent to his home by the case. And when you get on the warpath on the gambling question you go to the fellow who has the slot machines but you say nothing to the church member who gambles in his home. Train your guns on the ungodly church members.

"THE HIGHLANDS OF ONTARIO FOR YOUR HOLIDAYS."

With the knowledge of what America has to offer the summer tourist and the rest and health seeker, the thousands of summer travelers who spend their vacation in "The Highlands of Ontario," unhesitatingly pronounce the Muskoka Lake region the ideal, the perfectly satisfying summer resort. Such an ideal is a combination of two features—primeval nature is a perfect bewilderment of beauty, charm and variety, along with the facilities for most of the modern necessities and conveniences. In addition to these, the even temperature, the altitude (1000 feet above the sea), the health giving ozone from pine, hemlock and fir, and the dark, soft waters of innumerable lakes teeming with the game of fresh water fish. What more has a weary, nerve-racked man or lover of nature to desire?

Handsome, illustrated, descriptive publications will be sent free on application to R. McSmith, Southern Passenger Agent Grand Trunk Railway, 124 Woodward Ave., Detroit.

NEW STAMPS.

There will be a new issue of U. S. postage stamps to commemorate the St. Louis World's Fair. Jefferson's portrait will be used on the two cent stamp and probably Napoleon's on the five cent. McKinley's features will probably appear on one of the denominations.

A BANKRUPT.

New York, June 11.—W. J. Hendrick, of New York, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District court, for the Southern district of New York. The assets are stated as approximately $4,000 and the liabilities at $177,000. Hendricks is a lawyer and promoter, and had offices in Louisville and Frankfort. He was formerly Attorney General of Kentucky.

VERY YOUNG PEOPLE.

At the county clerk's office last Monday morning, Squire W. C. Rucker joined in wedlock S. J. Glass to Miss Ora Calvert. The groom is 16 years old and the bride but 15. They are both residents of this county and live east of Princeton. In the ardor of youthful love we hope their happiness will be complete and never wane.—Princeton Leader.

A GLOOMY VIEW.

A Sturgis correspondent takes this view of the present crop conditions in Union county: The outlook in Union, used to bumper crops, bursting granaries and prosperous times, is exceedingly discouraging this year, owing to continued wet weather and bad conditions generally. Wheat will not average 50 per cent, corn is not up to the standard and oats and tobacco will fall below former expectations.

A PRETTY FAD.

The fashion of going without a hat promises to be followed more widely this season than ever before. It is a pretty custom, extremely becoming and very beneficial for the hair. There is but one drawback to it, and that is that it is hard on the complexion.

Freckles are not becoming, nor is a coat of tan a desirable addition to an autumn toilet. The girl with an eye to the future will carry a parasol when she goes without a hat.

ONE HUNDRED PER DAY.

Mr. Ware, the commissioner of pensions, says that the work of his bureau on the civil war lists will continue for several years to come. He says that the survivors of the men who fought for the Union reach over 900,000, of whom 700,000 are carried on the pension rolls. He says that the ravages of death now shows that about 100 are now answering the last roll call every day. This rate will be constantly increasing and in ten years from now, there will have sounded for 500,000 of the veterans.

MIDSUMMER COOKERY.

The Delineator for July offers a number of features of interest to the culinary department of the household. Miles Bradford's entertaining paper in the "Charlotte and I" series. An Emergency Luncheon includes some admirable suggestions for the utilizing of leftovers. A feature of especial timeliness is the two pages portraying hot weather beverages, daintily arranged on trays for serving and with the recipe for the same. Fruit salad is the subject of a paper, tempting ways of serving tomatoes are given in another and the preparation of toasts both plain and sweet are also fully explained.

DON'TS FOR THE EYES.

Don't use the eyes when they are tired or weak from illness. Don't bathe eyes that are inflamed with cold water; use warm water. Don't wear a veil with black dots or one woven with double thread. Don't open the eyes under water when bathing, especially salt water. Don't neglect to bathe the eyes occasionally in salt water. A weak solution is best. Don't look too steadily from a car window, at objects that are constantly flying past you. Don't sleep opposite a window or where a strong light will strike the eyes on awakening. Don't work longer than two hours without closing the eyes and resting for five minutes. Don't expose the eyes at any time to a strong light such as sun light, or gas, or lamplight. Don't sit facing a strong light. If possible let the light fall on the work or book from over the shoulder. Don't have colored shades on the lamps. Use white or ground glass. If you must have a colored shade, let it be green. Don't rub the eyes by outward motion, but toward the nose, as this rounds the ball and preserves the normal shape.

GREAT HOARD OF GOLD.

Nearly one thousand three hundred tons of gold lie today in the vaults of the Treasury of the United States, the greatest hoard of the yellow metal ever gathered in the history of the world. Four hundred tons of this gold are piled, like bags of salt, within the four walls of the Subtreasury in Wall street, New York. Outside the Treasury hoard there is in circulation throughout the country a nearly equal amount of gold coin, making more than two thousand five hundred tons of gold in the United States bearing the imprint of the eagle. The value of this coin is more than $1,260,000,000.

THE BAND PLAYED ON.

When "the Great American Water Circus" was giving a performance at Uniontown, with 1500 people present, the Evansville packet landed at the wharfboat nearby. The wheel struck the circus barge, crushing in a small room, producing a great noise. Some one yelled, "fire!" women and children screamed and some fainted. Fortunately the band played on. Those with presence of mind sat still, and with the quieting talk of the circus manager, order was restored without loss of life.

10,000 Suicides in Four Years.

It is said 10,000 people committed suicide between the years 1897 and 1901. An investigation of these suicides has developed the following facts:

That men commit suicide between the ages of thirty and forty years.

Women between twenty and thirty.

Over three men to one woman commit suicide.

That married men are more given to suicide than single men. The causes, in a great majority of cases, that lead to self-destruction are whisky, theft, and women.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

See That Will Result in Plenty of Fun and Laughter.

Here is a splendid game to introduce when you have a party of girls and boys with you at your house for an evening's good time. It is called the picture game. Those engaged in it sit around a table, and each player is supplied with a piece of writing paper folded into three parts and a lead pencil. Each one sketches a head and neck of a person or animal, taking care that his neighbor does not see his work. Then each refolds the paper so as to hide his or her sketch, but leaves indications of where the body is to be joined to the neck. The papers then change hands all around, and each proceeds to sketch a body for the head he has not seen. This accomplished, the papers are folded as before. Another change takes place, and all proceed to supply the nether limbs to the unseen bodies just as previously when supplying bodies for the invisible heads. When all this is done, another change of papers takes place, and each writes a name of the supposed animal or person above it. When the papers are unfolded, shouts of laughter at the absurd combinations in the pictures or the addresses given them are usually heard.

This game may be varied in a poetical way thus: The first one to write a line fold the paper and give the last word of the line to his neighbor as the paper is passed. The next one writes a line the last word to rhyme with the one before it, and so on till the paper has passed around the table. An easy word to rhyme, like sea, makes it more interesting.

A Game With Figures.

An interesting game by which a boy or girl may while away many a pleasant hour is the following: It is played with an antagonist, each in turn placing a number on paper from one to six, adding them up mentally as they proceed. The person who succeeds in placing the last figure which shall make the column add up 30 wins the game.

The player unacquainted with the secret always loses. The explanation involves the number 9. Your friend has written, say, 6. You put down, say, 3, which will add up 9. Your friend puts down, say, 1. You put down 6, for the second addition must equal 7. Again he puts down, say, 5. You make it 7 by adding 2. He puts down, say, 3. You again make it 7 by putting 4. The addition foots 30, and as you have put down the last figure you have won. Be careful to make the first addition 9 and the following three 7 each, and victory will never desert you.

The Why Giraffe.

Perhaps the most difficult of all wild animals to capture is the giraffe. In addition to being very rare, giraffes are exceedingly timid, and are very swift footed. There is no special way to capture a giraffe, as almost every attempt has been tried, and all have been almost equally unsuccessful. The method which has occasionally resulted in a capture is by using a long cord, at each end of which is a round weight. This cord is thrown by the hunter in such a manner as to wind round the animal's legs, either bringing it to ground or rendering it incapable of escaping before it is made a prisoner. Most of the giraffes in captivity have been caught by chance when young.

Paine's Celery Compound CURES RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism, which does its terrible work in the muscles, joints, and tissues, is caused by uric acid which gathers in the blood. To get rid of this poisonous acid which produces the irritations, pains, agonies, inflammations, and swellings peculiar to rheumatism, Paine's Celery Compound should be used without delay. No other medicine gives such prompt, cheering, and happy results. It is the only medicine that prevents a return of the dreaded disease. Paine's Celery Compound breaks the nerves, the blood is quickly cleared of all irritating poisons, tissue and muscle are built up, and the digestive organs perfectly toned. Do not treat with indifference the slightest rheumatic symptoms; the early use of Paine's Celery Compound will save you weeks and months of suffering. Mr. S. D. Conway, St. Louis, Mo., was permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound after repeated failures with other medicines and physicians; he says:—

"I am 64 years of age, and have lived in St. Louis 27 years, and all this time with the exception of three years, I have served in the Engineers' Department as Inspector. Last winter I contracted rheumatism and was laid up. I tried all remedies and doctors, but all failed until I struck Paine's Celery Compound, which has made a permanent cure in my case. I have recommended it to many, and they have used it with the same result."

The Beautiful American Woman.

Are American women growing better looking? is a question raised occasionally by magazine writers, and then they write long essays to prove that they are. The truth is that American women are and always have been good looking. What often leads to the general remark that women look more beautiful today than formerly is the difference between the styles of wearing apparel in vogue now and those of fifty years ago. At a theater or social party it is sometimes difficult to discover which is the daughter and which the mother nowadays, because one looks about as youthful in appearance as the other.—Boston Globe.

To Clear the Complexion.

The very best remedy for a muddy skin is a warm bath every night. With the bath there must be soap enough to make a heavy lather, and there should be rinsing water. A nice little flesh scrubbing brush is a good thing, and it can be used freely upon the skin and with all the force you can muster, enough to make the flesh glow. Scrub until it is a bright pink, but no more. Then rinse off with clear water, and you will have the foundation for a clear complexion. Bat plenty of grapes and oranges, also lettuce, celery, young onions and other crisp green vegetables.

Billie Banks, of Karbers Ridge, Ill., who has served his country as an official in several different capacities in a letter says: "I can without hesitancy recommend Hill's Specific, as I was cured almost instantly of bowel complaint by its use." As summer has come with its usual quota of summer complaints, it would be best to fortify against their dangerous attacks, by keeping a bottle of Hill's Specific in your home; you can find it for sale at any store where patent medicines are sold.

One That Will Result in Plenty of Fun and Laughter.

Here is a splendid game to introduce when you have a party of girls and boys with you at your house for an evening's good time. It is called the picture game. Those engaged in it sit around a table, and each player is supplied with a piece of writing paper folded into three parts and a lead pencil. Each one sketches a head and neck of a person or animal, taking care that his neighbor does not see his work. Then each refolds the paper so as to hide his or her sketch, but leaves indications of where the body is to be joined to the neck. The papers then change hands all around, and each proceeds to sketch a body for the head he has not seen. This accomplished, the papers are folded as before. Another change takes place, and all proceed to supply the missing limbs to the unseen bodies just as previously when supplying bodies for the invisible heads. When all this is done, another change of papers takes place, and each writes a name of the supposed animal or person above it. When the papers are unfolded, shouts of laughter at the absurd combinations in the pictures or the addresses given them are usually heard.

This game may be varied in a poetical way thus: The first one to write a line, fold the paper and give the last word of the line to his neighbor as the paper is passed. The next one writes a line, the last word to rhyme with the one before it, and so on till the paper has passed around the table. An easy word to rhyme, like sea, makes it more interesting.

A Game With Figures.

An interesting game by which a boy or girl may while away many a pleasant hour is the following: It is played with an antagonist, each in turn placing a number on paper from one to six, adding them up mentally as they proceed. The person who succeeds in placing the last figure which shall make the column add up 30 wins the game.

The player unacquainted with the secret always loses. The explanation involves the numbers 9. Your friend has written, say, 4. You put down, say, 3, which will add up 9. Your friend puts down, say, 1. You put down 8, for the second addition must equal 9. Again he puts down, say, 5. You make it 7 by adding 2. He puts down, say, 3. You again make it 9 by putting 6. The addition foots 30, and as you have put down the last figure you have won. Be careful to make the first addition 9 and the following three 7 each, and victory will never desert you.

The Why Giraffe.

Perhaps the most difficult of all wild animals to capture is the giraffe. In addition to being very rare, giraffes are exceedingly timid and are very swift footed. There is no special way to capture a giraffe, as almost every way has been tried, and all have been almost equally unsuccessful. The method which has occasionally resulted in a capture is by using a long cord, at each end of which is a round weight. This cord is thrown by the hunter in such a manner as to wind round the animal's legs, either bringing it to ground or rendering it incapable of escaping before it is made a prisoner. Most of the giraffes in captivity have been caught by chance when young.

Paine's Celery Compound CURES RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism, which does its terrible work in the muscles, joints, and tissues, is caused by acid which gathers in the blood. To get rid of this poisonous acid which produces the rations, pains, agonies, inflammations, and swellings peculiar to rheumatism, Paine's Celery Compound should be used without delay. No other medicine gives such prompt, cheering, and happy results. It is the only medicine that prevents a return of the dreaded disease. Paine's Celery Compound braces the nerves, the blood is quickly cleared of all irritating poisons, tissue and muscle are built up, and the digestive organs perfectly toned. Do not treat with indifference the slightest rheumatic symptoms; the early use of Paine's Celery Compound will save you weeks and months of suffering. Mr. S. D. Conway, St. Louis, Mo., was permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound after repeated failures with other medicines and physicians; he says:—

"I am 64 years of age, and have lived in St. Louis 27 years, and all this time with the exception of three years, I have served in the Engineers' Department as Inspector. Last winter I contracted rheumatism and was laid up. I tried all remedies and doctors, but all failed until I struck Paine's Celery Compound, which has made a permanent cure in my case. I have recommended it to many, and they have used it with the same result."

Ladies and Children Invited

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not grip, weaken or sicken; many people call them the easy pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Texas, says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others grip and sicken; while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by R. F. Haynes.

Investments in Southern Lands.

Such investments are not speculative. The South is not a new country. Market and shipping facilities are adequate and first-class. The climate is mild and favorable. Notwithstanding these and other advantages, southern lands are selling for prices far below their real value, and at present prices net large returns on the investment. For a free set of circulars, Nos. 1 to 10, inclusive, concerning the possibilities of lands in Kentucky, West Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, on and near the Illinois Central Railroad, for home-seekers and investors, address the undersigned.

The Beautiful American Woman.

Are American women growing better looking? Is a question raised occasionally by magazine writers, and then they write long essays to prove that they are. The truth is that American women are and always have been good looking. What often leads to the general remark that women look more beautiful today than formerly is the difference between the styles of wearing apparel in vogue now and those of fifty years ago. At a theater or social party it is sometimes difficult to discover which is the daughter and which the mother nowadays, because one looks about as youthful in appearance as the other.—Boston Globe.

There is an aching and tired feeling, the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything and a feeling that the whole body and mind needs toning up. The trouble is that during the winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will relieve it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect fully restore the wasted tissue and give you strength instead of weakness; 50 cents at Woods & Co's.

To Clear the Complexion.

The very best remedy for a muddy skin is a warm bath every night. With the bath there must be soap enough to make a heavy lather, and there should be rinsing water. A nice little flesh scrubbing brush is a good thing, and it can be used freely upon the skin and with all the force you can muster, enough to make the flesh glow. Scrub it until it is a bright pink, but no more. Then rinse off with clear water, and you will have the foundation for a clear complexion. Eat plenty of grapes and oranges, also lettuce, celery, young onions and other crisp green vegetables.

Billie Banks, of Karbers Ridge, Ill., who has served his country as an official in several different capacities in a letter says: "I can without hesitancy recommend Hill's Specific, as I was cured almost instantly of bowel complaint by its use." As summer has come with its usual quota of summer complaints, it would be best to fortify against their dangerous attacks, by keeping a bottle of Hill's Specific in your home; you can find it for sale at any store where patent medicines are sold.

A Wall Finish.

Wooden cornices of a wood to match the baseboards are the latest finish to the side wall of a room. Sometimes it is in L shape, put in at the angle of the wall and ceiling, one part on each. This wooden cornice, it is asserted, is the most artistic wall finish. A wall should have a crown as well as a foot, and it is best that this cornice or crown should agree in material and color with the foot.

The Shortened Skirt.

A skirt that just escapes the ground is not only convenient, but it is far better for a woman when walking to stand up straight than it is to lean over to one side, as one almost invariably does when grasping a long skirt to hold it off the ground. Therefore the shortened skirt is healthful too.

The Bathroom Pipes.

When there is sickness in the house, the bathroom pipes require special attention. One of the best disinfectants is carbolic acid, allowing four table-spoonfuls to a quart of cold water. Pour this in the pipes and allow it to stand for twenty minutes or so before flushing.
